

Quail Creek Newsletter

May 2009

TO THE 2009 GRADUATES: Congratulations! Your parents, teachers, and neighbors are proud of you! You have worked hard and achieved success. Go into the future with all our best wishes.

SYMPATHY: The neighborhood sympathy to the family of Herman Mathews, 1103 W. Camino who passed away April 24, 2009. He will be missed.

HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE: The Tuesday Morning Get Together will take place every Tuesday morning during June at the pavilion from 10:30-11:30. Everyone is welcome to come, have refreshments, and visit with your neighbors.

LIFEGUARDS NEEDED: Full time Red Cross certified lifeguards are needed. Pay is $8.00 per hour. If interested in working, an application is on our web site: www.qcpcpa.com. Substitutes are also needed. Contact Pool Chairs, Scott & Alex Menzel (889-0882).

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME: Annike Noelle Hess arrived May 8, 2009 to the world. She and her pharmacist parents, Paul & Kori Hess, moved into our neighborhood at 4662 Turnberry. Also, welcome to Bob and Sharon Lewis who came to us from Chicago. They chose 4699 Turnberry for their new home. Bob is COO at Redneck Trailer Supply. Both of our new neighbors are included in the Directory.

THREE CHEERS FOR COACH - KEITH GUTTIN (4671 S. Turnberry). His Missouri State Baseball Bears finished first in the Missouri Valley Conference again!

ACHIEVEMENT RECOGNIZED: Earl Newman (1182 W. Woodhaven) was honored as one of the top 10 public works leaders for 2009 by the American Public Works Association. He was recognized for his efforts to reduce vehicle accidents. Mr. Newman's efforts in obtaining additional stop warnings at the corner of Quail Creek and Lark Streets was much appreciated by the Board of Directors.

DIRECTORY: The new 2009-2010 Directory is being delivered by block captains with this Newsletter. Many thanks for delivering it and the Newsletter each month. Also, thank you to those who sent in corrections for the Directory. We had twenty new homeowners move into our neighborhood during the last year.

The next board meeting is June 8 at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Bill Hass.
