

QUAIL CREEK NEWSLETTER

September 2008

PROPOSED DEVELOPMENT OF WARD PROPERTY: A large number of residents attended the informational meeting on August 21, 2008, at the Library Center held by Ron Stenger Companies concerning the zoning and development of the Ward family property. It is planned to have commercial establishments along Campbell Street, ranging from the Library Center to Weaver Road, a business section along the back side of the Library Center, and approximately 60 single family dwellings (similar to homes in our subdivision) along the east of Quail Creek Avenue from approximately Beekman Street south to Weaver Road. Buena Vista Street will extend through the area meeting up with Lakewood at Campbell Street. It will be quite some time before development begins.

BABYSITTING: If you are an experienced babysitter and would like to occasionally care for an infant here in Quail Creek, please call Lindsay at 894-8525.

DIRECTORY CHANGE: Our president, Joe Brozovich, has changed his email address. It is jmbroz@att.net Please make the change in your Directory.

SYMPATHY: Our sympathy to the family of Jerry and Margaret Carroll on the death of his brother, Bill.
